Kyocera 2100 Series

Here it is—an all-you-need phone you can truly call your own: the Kyocera 2100 Series. Great features, with great looks, too. Your phone, your way—just change the faceplate color to match your mood, your clothes, your style. Want your phone to be more “you”? Choose from up to 15 ringer types and a vibrate alert to customize your incoming calls.

Plus, what makes the Kyocera 2100 Series even more unique is its special ergonomic design. This phone is comfortable to hold—and that’s fortunate because you’ll use it often. Check out your favorite Web sites, send and receive e-mail and text messages.* And, as if all these great features aren’t enough, this trimode phone also offers three modes of network coverage—CDMA digital PCS, CDMA digital cellular and analog—so you can stay connected virtually anywhere.*

The Kyocera 2100 Series: indispensable—and individual.
